

Life without God

"22 And the people of Israel persisted in all the evil ways of Jeroboam. They did not turn from these sins²³ until the Lord finally swept them away from his presence, just as all his prophets had warned. So Israel was exiled from their land to Assyria, where they remain to this day." 2 Kings 17:22-23 NLT

- To what degree would you say that you involve God in your life—not at all, throughout the day, only when I am in trouble?
- Do you wish you could be closer to God and be more devoted to him?

The book of 2 Kings is a story about the consequences of living without God, that is, living as if He does not exist or as if He does not have a place in one's life, home, business, decisions, plans, etc. It teaches us the important life lesson that God created us to be in a relationship with Him and that a life that excludes God leads to problems, pain, and possible ruin. Israel lived independent of God and eventually fell to the Assyrians as their captives (2 Kings 17). Judah had periods when they were devoted to God and prospered, but eventually, they excluded God from their lives. They fell to the Babylonians and became slaves (2 Kings 25). We were not created to live independently of God. We experience the best of life when God is at the center of our lives. Do you live as if God does not exist, OR is He a vital part of every dimension of your life? Is God in the center of your life?

Central Lesson

We were not created to live independently of God. Life is at its best when God is at the CENTER of our lives.

Key Verses: 2 Kings 17:22-23 and 23:26-27. These verses

SUMMARIZE the book of 2 Kings.

1. Israel (the Northern kingdom) refused to turn from their persistent sin even after God repeatedly warned them of His punishment through the prophets. God eventually removed His blessing and protection from Israel. God allowed the Assyrians to conquer Israel in 722 B.C. and take them into slavery (2 Kings 17:22-23).
2. Approximately 140 years later, God punished Judah (the Southern kingdom) because of their persistent wickedness. God eventually removed His blessing and protection from Judah, allowing the Babylonians to destroy Jerusalem and take Judah into slavery in 586 B.C. (2 Kings 23:26-27).

Key Chapters: 2 Kings 17 and 21 (Also chapter 24).

- Chapter 17 gives the reason for Israel's fall and captivity to Assyria (17:7-18).
- Chapter 21 (also 24) indicates the reason for Judah's Babylonian captivity (21:1-16 and 24:1-4). Manasseh's wickedness was so depraved (Ch. 21) that God could not forget it and judged Judah even generations later (24:3-4) even though Judah had experienced a revival under king Josiah, the second king after Manasseh (22:1-2, 13-20; 23:21-25).

Scope: 2 Kings covers 250 years of Israel's and 390 years of Judah's history.

Author: The author of 1 and 2 Kings is uncertain, but it is believed to be the prophet Jeremiah. Jewish tradition recorded in the Talmud indicated Jeremiah as the author. The style of the book is that of a prophet. It stresses the idolatry and immorality of Israel and the subsequent judgment of God. Also, it is similar in style to the book of Jeremiah (cf. 2 Kings 24:18-25:30 is the same as Jeremiah 52).

Major Lessons & Applications:

1. Sin always has PAINFUL consequences. It may start feeling good and being fun, but eventually, it leads to problems and pain. The New Testament tells us, "7 Don't be misled—you cannot mock the justice of God. You will always harvest what you plant. 8 Those who live only to satisfy their own sinful nature will harvest decay and death from that sinful nature. But those who live to please the Spirit will harvest everlasting life from the Spirit." Galatians 6:7-8 NLT. The history of Israel and Judah demonstrates the heartache and damaging consequences of sin.

The Life Application Bible states: "Although Israel had the witness and power of Elisha, the nation turned from God and was exiled to Assyria.... There has been no return from this captivity—it was permanent. Such is the end of all who shut God out of their lives." (p. 603).

Bible Teacher Henrietta Mears adds: "There is a great difference between the fall of Israel and Judah. Israel was scattered throughout the nations for an indefinite period, but God specified the length of Judah's captivity to seventy years. Judah was to return to Jerusalem which she did later. The Messiah was to come out of Judah and God was preparing the way for Him to come to Palestine and not to Babylon or Assyria." What the Bible Is All About, (p.140).

2. We must not FOLLOW the sinful lifestyles of the world around us. The New Testament warns us against being conformed to the pattern of this world (cf. Romans 12:2). Both Israel and Judah followed the sinful lifestyles and practices of the pagan nations around them (cf. 2 Kings 16:3; 17:8, 11, 15, 33; 21:2).
3. God's patience and warnings have LIMITS. God sent His prophets to warn Israel and Judah of their sin and denial of Him (2 Kings 17:13-14, 22-23; 21:10-12; 24:2-4). He repeatedly called them back to Himself. God was patient, but they hardened their hearts and pushed God out of their lives. God's patience finally ended, and He judged them for their sin. God repeatedly warns people today. However, if they turn a deaf ear, God's patience ends, and He acts to punish. Has God been speaking to you about your relationship with Him?

Central Lesson

We were not created to live independently of God. Life is at its best when God is at the center of our lives.
