

Isaiah: God's Comfort in Chaos

The Gospel According to Isaiah

"All of us, like sheep, have strayed away. We have left God's paths to follow our own. Yet the Lord laid on him the sins of us all." Isaiah 53:6 NLT

Like us today, the Prophet Isaiah lived in a world of chaos. He lived in Jerusalem around 700 B.C., where there was a constant threat of war from Assyria & Babylon (modern-day Iraq). The government was filled with corruption. Immorality and crime were widespread. The people worshipped idols, sacrificed their infant babies to pagan deities, participated in pagan sex rituals, abused the poor, and rejected God's laws and Commandments. Most of the religious leaders were hypocritical—going through the motions of worshipping God while freely living in sin and corruption (1:11-17). In addition, Isaiah was the target of personal threats and abuse because he confronted the nation with their sin and warned them of God's coming judgment. Eventually, Isaiah was killed for his preaching. Tradition says that he was sawed in half by King Manasseh (cf. Hebrews 11:37).

Even though the world was in chaos, God had a message of comfort for those who would turn to Him (40:1; 51:3; 57:18; 61:2; 66:13). God's message of comfort included the prophecy of Messiah's coming, salvation, and blessing. Also, the message provided a glimpse of the future, when the Messiah will reign over the earth, bringing order, justice, and peace. God has a message of comfort for you today. Will you fully open your heart to His message and live for Him?

Central Lesson: Jesus is the promised Savior who came into the world to rescue us from the brokenness of sin.

Date: 740-680 B.C.

Author: ISAIAH the prophet. He is called the "Saint Paul of the Old Testament." Isaiah was a prophet of God in Jerusalem during the reign of the four kings of Judah: Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah. He was married to a woman who was a prophetess (8:8) and had two sons (8:8). Isaiah eagerly answered God's call to be a prophet even though God told him that his preaching would be rejected by the people (6:9-13).

Title: The book is named after its author—the Prophet Isaiah. His name in Hebrew means "Jehovah is SALVATION." This name is a fitting summary of the book. The book of Isaiah is called a miniature of the Bible.

- Isaiah has 66 chapters, just as the Bible has 66 books.
- The first half of Isaiah has 39 chapters, just as the Old Testament has 39 books, and the second half has 27 chapters, just as the New Testament has 27 books.
- Both the first half of Isaiah and the Old Testament focus on the same message—God's law and judgment on sin. The second half of Isaiah and the New Testament focus on the same message—God's grace and salvation through the substitutionary atonement of the Messiah—Jesus Christ.

Key Word: The key words in Isaiah are "SALVATION" and "COMFORT." The word "salvation" appears 27 times in Isaiah but only 7 times in all the other prophets combined.

- Salvation—12:2, 3; 25:9; 26:1, 18; 30:15; 33:2, 6; 45:8, 17; 46: 13; 49:6, 8; 51:5, 6, 8; 52:10; 56:1; 59:16, 17; 60:18; 61:10; 62:1; 63:5.
- Comfort—40:1; 51:3, 19; 57:18; 61:2; 66:13.

Key Verse: The key verse is Isaiah 53:6. It summarizes the book. The first 39 chapters describe the people going their own way straying from God. The second half of the book revolves around the Messiah's coming to take the world's sins upon Himself.

Key Chapters: The key chapter of Isaiah is chapter 53.

Isaiah 53 gives a number of prophetic details concerning the coming of the Messiah, His death, substitutionary atonement, salvation, and resurrection. Each of these prophecies were fulfilled in Jesus Christ. Chapter 53 is quoted or alluded to at least 85 times in the New Testament.

Outline:

- I. CONDEMNATION against Sin—Chapters 1-39.
Condemnation of Judah (1-12), World Nations (13-23), the End Times (24-27), Woes & Blessings upon Israel & Judah (28-35), Condemnation of Sennacherib through Hezekiah (36-39).
- II. COMFORT and Salvation—Chapters 40-66.
The Coming of Israel's Salvation (40-48), Israel's Savior (49-57), Israel's Shinning Future (58-66).

Christ in Isaiah: Christ can be seen in the book of Isaiah more than any other Old Testament book. Isaiah sounds more like a New Testament writer than an Old Testament prophet when referring to Christ. Isaiah prophesied about Christ's first and second comings. Sometimes the details of the two comings are blended together.

Purpose and Theme: God's COMFORT and SALVATION through the Messiah, Jesus Christ. Another way of expressing the theme is: warning about sin and watching for the Savior.

Miscellaneous Items in Isaiah:

- Satan's fall is described (14:12-15). (Compare Revelation 12.)
- Isaiah's naked three year object lesson—Chapter 20.
- The shadow from the sun goes back ten steps (38:7-8).
- A glimpse of heaven with God sitting on His throne—Chapter 6.
- The purpose for prophecy (48:3-6).
