

LUKE: The Verified (Fact Checked) Account About Jesus

"1 Many people have set out to write accounts about the events that have been fulfilled among us. 2 They used the eyewitness reports circulating among us from the early disciples. 3 Having carefully investigated everything from the beginning, I also have decided to write an accurate account for you, most honorable Theophilus, 4 so you can be certain of the truth of everything you were taught." Luke 1:1-4 NLT

- Have you ever wondered if the New Testament accounts about Jesus are factual and historically accurate?

Purpose: There are at least two purposes for the Gospel of Luke.

1. To provide a verified ACCURATE account of the life and teachings of Jesus (Luke 1:1-4).
2. To show that Jesus was the perfect man qualified to be our SUBSTITUTE and Savior.

Luke views Jesus as a man, an actual human (who was also God). Jesus was the perfect man—a compassionate Savior and model for how to live. Luke emphasizes the humanity of Jesus by using the phrase "son of man" twenty-four times. It was also the favorite way Jesus referred to Himself.

Only a perfect man could be our substitute, that is, to take upon himself the guilt of our sin and provide the atonement (payment) for our forgiveness and salvation. "For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve others and to give his life as a ransom for many." Mark 10:45 NLT. The actions of Jesus proved that he was the suffering servant of Isaiah 52-53 and the Messiah of Daniel 7:13 "As my vision continued that night, I saw someone like a son of man coming with the clouds of heaven..."

Why Is it Important to Understand Jesus' Perfect Humanity?

As an actual and perfect human...

1. Jesus came to our LEVEL and sympathized with our struggles and pain (cf. Heb. 4:15-16).
2. Jesus gives us a GLIMPSE of what we will be like in heaven when we are totally free from our sinful natures (cf. Heb. 4:15; 1 Pet. 2:22).
3. Jesus was QUALIFIED to be our substitute. was qualified to take our sins on himself, suffer the judgment of God that belonged to us, pay the price for our sins, and open the door for us to have a personal relationship with God. (cf. 2 Cor. 5:21; 1 Pet. 2:24; 3:18).
4. Jesus provided the PATTERN or model for how we should live. The New Testament teaches us to live as Jesus lived (1 Peter 2:21; Philippians 2:5; 1 Corinthians 11:1).

Central Lesson:

Jesus is God who took on human form. Only a perfect human could be our substitute and take our sins and punishment.

Author: LUKE. From as far back as the second century, the early church leaders claim that Luke wrote both the third Gospel and the book of Acts, even though his name is not mentioned in either book. Both books are written to an individual named Theophilus, perhaps a Roman official with a strong interest in Christianity. (Luke 1:3-4 and Acts 1:1).

What do we know about Luke? Even though Luke wrote more than one-fourth (28%) of the New Testament (more than even the Apostle Paul, who wrote 2,033 verses, and Luke wrote 2,138 verses), we know less about him than any other New Testament writer. The Bible reveals:

- He was the traveling companion of the Apostle Paul, indicated by the word "we" in Acts (16:10-17; 20:5-21:18; 27:1-28:16).
- He was a physician (Colossians 4:14).
- He was faithful and supportive of Paul even when all others deserted him in jail. Paul wrote, "Only Luke is with me" (2 Timothy 4:11). He was with Paul from at least the time of Paul's Macedonian call (Acts 16:9-10) up to the time of Paul's martyrdom (2 Tim. 4:11).

Life Lesson: Luke's life teaches us about faithfulness. He served God and supported God's servants regardless of life's difficulties. Do you give up in hard times? Do you want your life to be characterized by faithfulness?

- Luke was the only Gentile to author a book of the Bible (Col. 4:10-14).
- He was not one of the disciples or an eyewitness of Jesus. He makes a distinction between himself and those who were eyewitnesses (Luke 1:1-2). He writes that he carefully investigated everything from the beginning (1:3) so there could be certainty about the facts (1:4).
- Tradition says that Luke was from Syrian Antioch, remained unmarried, and died at the age of eighty-four.

Key Verses: Luke 1:1-4 and 19:10

Key Chapter: Luke chapter 15. Luke 15 amplifies the key verse of Jesus coming to seek and save the lost by presenting three stories where something lost is found: the parable of the lost sheep (15:1-7), the lost coin (15:8-10), and the lost son (15:11-32).
